DWIGHT DAVID EISENHOWER TRANSPORTATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

The Dwight David Eisenhower Transportation Fellowship Program was authorized by Section 6001 of Public Law 102-240, of the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act (ISTEA) of 1991 and reauthorized by Section 5104 of Public Law 105-178, of the Transportation Equity Act for the Twenty-First Century (TEA-21) of 1998. The Eisenhower Transportation Fellowship Program is DOT-wide, was developed in the Summer of 1992, and encompasses all modes of transportation. The HBCU Executive Order 12876 was signed on November 1, 1993 by President William Jefferson Clinton.

The Program is managed by the Federal Highway Administration's (FHWA) National Highway Institute and receives annual funding of $2 million (minimum). The first fellowships were awarded in the Spring of 1992.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Program is to attract the nation's brightest minds to the field of transportation, to enhance the careers of transportation professionals, and to retain top talent in the transportation industry in the United States. The Eisenhower Transportation Fellowship Program is a DOT-wide program that encompasses all modes of transportation. The six award categories are:

Eisenhower Graduate Fellowships enable students to pursue Masters Degrees or Doctorates in transportation-related fields at the school of their choice.

Eisenhower Grants for Research Fellowships acquaint students with transportation research, development, and technology transfer activities at the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Eisenhower Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) Fellowships provide students attending HBCUs with additional opportunities to enter careers in transportation.

Eisenhower Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs) Fellowships provide students attending HSIs with additional opportunities to enter careers in transportation.

Eisenhower Faculty Fellowships provide talented faculty in transportation-related fields with opportunities to improve their expertise, by attending conferences, courses, seminars or workshops.

Eisenhower Tribal Colleges Initiatives identify transportation activities and provides student and faculty fellowship opportunities at Tribal Colleges.

DWIGHT DAVID EISENHOWER TRANSPORTATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

PURPOSE

- C To provide assistance for HBCUs in identifying and encouraging students to enter careers in transportation.
- C To serve as a feeder to the Eisenhower Graduate and Grants for Research Fellowships Programs.
- C To stimulate interests of HBCU students in conducting transportation-related research and pursuing careers at the U.S. Department of Transportation and in the transportation industry.

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION

Each designated HBCU representative must:

- C Develop a plan to establish a HBCU Fellowship Program which must be approved by the Director, Universities & Grants Programs.
- C Prepare, print, and distribute announcements, applications, and advertisements. A nomination template, to be customized with the HBCU's name, is provided in the Appendix.
- C Organize and convene a panel to review the applications for the HBCU Fellowships.
- C Establish a system to manage the awards. If the HBCU is not able to administer the fellowship award, they will be administered by the Director, Universities & Grants Programs.
- C All awards must be utilized in conjunction with transportation-related projects.

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION (contd.)

- C The Director, Universities & Grants Programs has the discretion of identifying additional fellowship funding.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- C Applicant must be a U.S. citizen.
- C Undergraduate students applying for awards must be in their junior year of college to receive funding.
- C HBCU Fellowships are intended for:
 - C Juniors who wish to obtain funding toward a research-based transportation-related degree at a HBCU and who plan to enter the transportation profession after completing their higher education.
 - C Seniors who wish to obtain research-based transportation-related graduate degrees at a HBCU and plan to enter the transportation profession after completing their higher education.
 - C Graduate students (Masters or Ph.D.) who plan to enter the transportation profession after completing their higher education.
